HOW TO DRAW A ROSE

Rose flower drawings are so exciting when you are sitting under a shady tree in a middle of a garden full of scented roses. The scenery is so important in developing your mood to start draw a rose or a bunch of roses.

But for beginners, before you start your rose flower drawing, make sure you take some photos or buy few pictures of roses...

Why?

You must learn to draw roses from a 2D photo first before you can draw a real rose flower in a 3D perspective. Make sure you practice to draw based on 2D pics or photos. As practice makes perfect...

Rose Pencil Drawings - How To Draw A Rose, Step No. 2

Take a HB or B grade graphite pencil. Use it to draw sketches of your rose pencil drawing. Start by sketching the whole of the rose first. Either you start from the center of your rose drawing or from the outer petals first...it's entirely up to you. As long as your rose sketch is on your paper, it's alright.

Look at your still rose picture and after you've drawn all the petals, then, stop looking at your sketch and compare it with your subject.

Ask these 2 important questions:-

1. Does it has a correct size to be on your paper?
2. Does it has a correct angle according to your rose picture?

If the answer is NOT to any of these questions...Erase your rose pencil sketch, and re-sketch your rose drawing according to the correct size and angle.

Okay? Finish drawing your rose pencil sketch? Let's continue to the next step...

Rose Pencil Drawings - How To Draw A Rose, Step No. 3

Use a 2B grade graphite pencil and create an outline sketch of the rose and start to create tones.

Next...

Rose Pencil Drawings - How To Draw A Rose, Step No. 4

Create darker tones using 4B pencil. Darker tones represent the deeper part of the rose petals. If you don't use darker tones, there will be no 3D perspectives in your rose pencil drawing.

Rose Pencil Drawings - How To Draw A Rose, Step No. 5

Use either 2b or 4B grade of graphite pencil to create rose leaves. Create tones on your leaves drawing pencil sketch. If you are a right-handed person, start from your left and vice versa. Otherwise you might ruin your rose flower drawing with your own hand.

Rub your pencil strokes with your finger based on the leaves contour. Make sure you use a fine tip eraser to create the leaves skeleton.

Use 6B pencil to create darker tones especially the lower part of your rose drawing.

And finally...

Your pencil drawn rose pencil drawing...
